Early Help

Early help, also known as early intervention, is support given to a family when a problem first emerges. It can be provided at any stage in a child or young person's life.

The importance of Early Help

Early help can offer children the support needed to reach their full potential (EIF, 2021). It can improve the quality of a child's home and family life, enable them to perform better at school and support their mental health (EIF, 2021).

If you feel you need help, speak to your tutor or you can contact Pier Training's Designated Safeguarding Officer directly. We can put you in touch with your local safeguarding partner who will provide you with the specialist support your family needs.
